

FACTSHEET

- Delaware North Companies (UK) have secured the catering and hospitality contract for 25 years
- The overall project cost is £357 million
- The new stadium will have a capacity for 60,000 spectators
- There will be 150 Executive Boxes in the new stadium, compared to 48 boxes at Highbury
- The new stadium Executive Boxes will have the total capacity to serve up to 2,000 meals on a matchday
- The new stadium is designed by HOK Sport, who are the Architects of Stadium Australia in Sydney, The English National Stadium Wembley, Royal Ascot Racecourse and Wimbledon Centre Court
- 18 full equipped kitchens
- 150 Corporate Boxes being serviced by 25 pantries
- 35 retail outlets
- We can serve a meal for 6,500 people
- 24 hospitality bars
- 1,300 staff employed
- 11 chefs
- Range of different menus to ensure that we meet all tastes and expectations
- Expected to open in August 2006

